DENISE COTE, District Judge:

A conference on the violation of supervised release is scheduled for January 28, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. The defendant resides in the state of Florida. Due to the travel restrictions imposed by the State of New York and the recent spike in COVID-19 cases, an in-court proceeding may not be available to the defendant. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that defense counsel shall respond to the following question by Wednesday, January 13:

Does the defendant consent to have the violation of supervise release status conference occur through videoconference technology?

If the defendant consents to proceed with the conference through videoconference technology, please complete and submit the written consent form attached to this Order if it is feasible to do so.
